South Suburban Park and Recreation District to Present 2015 Proposed Budget;

Community Invited to Attend Public Meeting Oct. 8

South Suburban Park and Recreation District will present its 2015 proposed budget, including proposed fees and charges at its Wed., Oct. 8 board meeting. The public meeting will begin at 7 pm at Goodson Recreation Center, 6315 S. University Blvd., in Centennial.

Examples of proposed fees for 2015 include a 25 cent admission increase at Colorado Journey Miniature Golf Course for residents, and a 50 cent increase for non-district customers. Park shelter rentals are being raised $20 for both resident and non-residents for a 4-hour block. Youth lacrosse for summer and fall registration will increase $2 for residents and $3 for non-residents. Ice arena rentals for hockey and figure skating will increase $10 per hour, and indoor tennis court block time will increase by $2 per hour.

The District is carefully balancing any fee increases with keeping fees affordable for patrons. There will be no increase in District green fees and no increase in daily admission for the District's recreation centers or outdoor pools. Copies of the proposed budget and fees and charges will be available for public review at the meeting. Copies also can be requested by calling 303-798-5131.

The public is invited to attend the meeting, or submit questions and ideas. Citizens will have an opportunity to address the Board, regarding requests for new programs or facilities or improvements to existing facilities, parks, trails and open space.

The public also may submit ideas to Executive Director, South Suburban Parks and Recreation, 6631 S. University Blvd., Centennial, CO 80121. Fax (303) 798-3030; or email: BrettC@sspr.org. Please label your request, 2015 South Suburban Budget. For more information call (303) 798-5131 or visit www.sspr.org.
