South Suburban Celebrates Great Skate Month with Free Skating Classes

During November, South Suburban Parks and Recreation will celebrate Great Skate Month with free group skating lessons on Saturdays at South Suburban Ice Arena and Family Sports Center. Anyone who attends a public skating session on Sat. is eligible for a free 30-minute skating lesson taught by experienced coaches. It's a great opportunity to learn the basics, or perfect your technique!

The free skating lessons will be offered at 1 pm at South Suburban Ice Arena and at 2:30 pm at Family Sports Center on Nov. 2, 9, 16 & 23.

Public skating sessions are 12 - 2 pm at South Suburban Ice Arena and 1 - 4 pm at Family Sports Center and admission is $7.75/$5.75 for Residents. Skate rental is available. South Suburban Ice Arena is located at 6580 S. Vine St., Centennial, and Family Sports Center is located at 6901 S. Peoria St., Centennial. For more information about Great Skate Month, Learn to Skate, Learn to Play Hockey or private lessons, call Gerry Lane at 303-798-7881 or visit www.sspr.org.
