South Suburban Kicks off Summer with Free Ice Cream Social for Sheridan Adults 55 Plus

Nothing says summer like an ice cream social. South Suburban Parks and Recreation's annual ice cream social for adults 55 plus who live in Sheridan and surrounding areas is set for Tues., June 16 from 12:30 – 2:30 pm at the Shelter at Sheridan Community Park, just west of Sheridan High School.

The free event will feature live entertainment by Jose Melendez and students from Sheridan Recreation Center's Music Lab, plus the musical group Glen Coco from Lakewood High School. Refreshments will include ice cream, root beer floats, lemonade, iced tea and cookies. It's a nice way to connect with friends and neighbors and enjoy a cool, refreshing treat.

Other event sponsors include Autumn Heights Health Care Center, Sheridan Police, City of Sheridan and Sheridan School District. Sheridan Community Park is located at 3325 W. Oxford Ave. Call 303-761-2241 for more information.
