RidgeGate Sponsors Third Annual FREE Kid's Expo at

South Suburban's Lone tree Recreation Center

Parents in search of fun and engaging opportunities for their children this summer will want to check out the Third Annual Free Kid's Expo, sponsored by RidgeGate, at South Suburban's Lone Tree Recreation Center on Sat., March 1 from 11 am - 3:30 pm. The Expo features hands-on, kid-friendly activities and resources for parents.

Interactive-booths include South Metro Fire Rescue, City of Lone Tree's Police Dept., Rent-A-Theme (rentable life-size equipment, i.e., board games and Lego's), Seeking Sitters (easy, safe babysitting solutions), Child Discovery Time Preschool and many others. There will be giveaways and door prizes throughout the day.

In addition, South Suburban will have a booth to showcase the District's arts and enrichment offerings with hands-on activities, as well as Spring Break and Summer Day Camps. Another attraction will be South Suburban's Kid's Living Well fitness van, featuring interactive Wii games and a host of activities, including giant stacking cups, hula hoops, jump ropes and athletic balls that kids will find entertaining.

Vendors are still being accepted. To participate, contact Mary Kaminski at Maryk@sspr.org, or call 303-708-3518. Lone Tree Recreation Center is located at 10249 Ridgegate Circle in Lone Tree. Free and ample parking is available. For more events and activities visit www.sspr.org.
