South Suburban Recreation Centers feature Local Artists in September

South Suburban Parks and Recreation's Buck, Goodson, and Lone Tree Recreation Centers are featuring temporary art exhibitions by local artists during the month of September. Take a trek across the District to see all three of these exhibits as they each offer different art forms for your viewing pleasure.

Dustin (Dusty) Hagerty is a professional photographer whose photographs will be displayed September 1-29, 2013 at Lone Tree Recreation Center, 10249 Ridgeway Circle, Lone Tree, 303-708-3500. Dusty has traveled extensively photographing scenery, animals, people, buildings, works of art, and many other subjects. This is Dusty's final 2013 exhibit at South Suburban so don't miss your chance to view his enticing photographs.

Mardelle Espinoza's landscape and portrait paintings can be seen September 1-29 at Douglas A. Buck Recreation Center, 2004 W. Powers Ave., Littleton, 303-797-8787. She is an extremely talented painter and sculptor. She also has a beautiful sculpture in the display case near the east entrance of the center. Her works develop a rapport with audiences through their senses of touch, thought and sight.

Members of the Paintbox Guild present an array of fine art for the public's viewing pleasure at Goodson Recreation Center, located at 6315 S. University Blvd., Centennial, 303-798-2476 from September 1-29. There will be an assortment of oil, watercolors and acrylic from various Littleton artists. Come feast your eyes on flowers, landscapes, and people in this diverse display.

South Suburban's Public Art Committee encourages Colorado artists to submit an application to temporarily display their artwork at various South Suburban recreation facilities.
