South Suburban Recreation Centers feature Local Artists in February

South Suburban Parks and Recreation's Goodson, Lone Tree and Douglas H. Buck recreation centers are featuring temporary art exhibits by local artists during the month of February. All artwork is available for sale to the public.

In "Fade to Bloom" the exciting and colorful renditions of spring flowers, exhibited by self-taught watercolor artist, Lynne Furrer, runs February 1-28, 2013 at the Buck Recreation Center, 2004 S. Powers Ave., Littleton, 303-797-8787. The public is invited to the artist's reception 11am – 1pm on Monday, February 4. at the Buck Recreation Center.

Maria Bouziane has an exhibit of oil and acrylic paintings at Goodson Recreation Center, 6315 S. University Blvd., Centennial, 303-798-2476 February 1-28, 2013. Her framed portraits and landscapes capture her subject matter beautifully and with great skill.

Paint Box Guild is displaying "Artists of Littleton" February 1-28, 2013 at Lone Tree Recreation Center at 10249 Ridgeway Circle, Lone Tree, 303-708-3500. Members of the Guild present an array of fine art for the public's viewing pleasure. There will be a mixture of media displayed from oil and acrylic to water pastels from various Littleton artists. Come feast your eyes on flowers, landscapes, and people in this diverse display.

South Suburban's Public Art Committee encourages Colorado artists to submit an application to temporarily display their artwork at various South Suburban recreation facilities.
