Explore Local Artists' Exciting Work in March at South Suburban Recreation Centers

South Suburban Parks and Recreation's Douglas H. Buck, Goodson and Lone Tree Recreation Centers feature temporary art exhibitions by local artists March 2-30.

The Paint Box Guild's display of oils, acrylics and watercolors at Lone Tree Recreation Center located at 10249 Ridgegate Circle, Lone Tree, 303-708-3500 brings a pleasing variety of landscapes, flowers and other subjects to viewers of the exhibit.

Sheryl Detert's exhibit "The Strength of Contrast" of 25 paintings at Goodson Recreation Center, 6315 S. University Blvd, Centennial, 303-798-2476 displays her work in acrylic and prism colored pencils. These paintings reflect her love of nature, color and contrast. The vibrant colors against black textured tar paper along with her paintings on black panels bring interesting, vibrant and intense results.

Steven Snyder's "Full Circle" exhibit of 20 acrylic paintings on wood and on canvas were produced from 2008-2014. They showcase a new direction for him of combining painting on wood that is cut and re-assembled. His display is at Douglas H. Buck Recreation Center, 2004 W. Powers, Littleton.

South Suburban's Public Art Committee encourages Colorado artists to submit an application to display their artwork on a temporary basis at various South Suburban recreation facilities. For a complete list of guidelines and an art exhibition application, please visit ssprd.org or contact Darcie LaScala at 303-483-7072.
