Enjoy Local Artists' Exhibits at South Suburban in May and Beyond

South Suburban Parks and Recreation's Goodson and Douglas H. Buck recreation centers and Lone Tree Golf Club & Hotel feature temporary art exhibitions by local artists.

Matt Hamer's exhibit "Cultural Corner Wall Hangings" in mixed clay is showing May 1-29 at Goodson Recreation Center, 6315 S. University Blvd, Centennial, 303-798-2476. Matt is a former clay instructor and after Matt suffered an Ischemic stroke in May 2006 his physical therapist suggested he begin working in clay again as a therapeutic tool. Matt found clay arts to be very helpful in his recovery and works daily at the Goodson Recreation Center Pottery Studio. His clay wall hangings are made mainly of Flagstone, Redstone and Dover White and represent a great deal of hard work. Recently, South Suburban recognized Matt as a VIP volunteer for his exceptional help in the pottery studio and as a resource to other students in developing their talents.

Rosanne Juergens is exhibiting her photographs titled "The Gritty and the Pretty" May 1-29 at Douglas H. Buck Community Center, 2004 W. Powers Ave., Littleton. Her exhibit represents both pretty landscapes and nature, along with the sterile images of weight room equipment. Rosanne likes the juxtaposition of contrasting color and subject matter in the exhibit as well as the relationship between the two - get out into the natural world propelled by your stronger muscles.

Shel Spiegleman's photographs of foreign spots all over the globe will delight you and pull you into their exotic locations. Do yourself a favor and see this beautiful exhibit, which runs through the end of August at Lone Tree Golf Club & Hotel at 9808 Sunningdale Blvd., Lone Tree.

South Suburban's Public Art Committee encourages Colorado artists to submit an application to display their artwork on a temporary basis at various South Suburban recreation facilities.
